Clients: _____ and _____, email/phone _____ (together, "Client")

1. Event and services

Wedding date: _____. Location where services will take place: _____, at _____. Bride to be ready by: _____. Artist will provide the hair and/or makeup services listed on Exhibit A / Price list dated _____, incorporated here, for these people: Bride _____; attendants/mothers/others _____ (ages of children listed). Each service, person, and price is listed separately. Makeup includes: _____ (e.g., traditional or airbrush, lashes). Trial: □ hair □ makeup on _____ at _____, fee $_____. Touch-up hours (if booked): _____ hours at $_____ per hour.

A schedule of services and start times will be provided by Artist. The full party's services typically take about _____ hours; the bride's first appointment is scheduled first unless agreed otherwise.

2. Fees, deposit, and payment

Total for services, trial, travel, and fees: $_____. A nonrefundable retainer of $_____ and this signed Agreement are both required to hold the date; the date is not held until both are received within _____ days of issue. The retainer is credited to the total. The balance is due by _____ (typically _____ days before the wedding). Payments may be made by _____ (credit cards subject to a _____% fee). Card on file for fees under this Agreement: □ yes □ no. Gratuity is not included and is at Client's discretion. Additional services or people not listed here are charged at Artist's rates on the day of service.

Fees that may apply: travel $_____ (or $_____ per mile round trip beyond _____ miles); parking/valet and hotel costs at Client's expense; assistant fee for parties over _____ people: $_____; early start before _____ AM: $_____; relocation to a second location: $_____; overnight stay: $_____; blow-dry needed on arrival: $_____.

3. Wedding-day requirements

Client will provide a clean, private, well-lit space with mirror(s), a chair, and power outlets near the working area. Artist's first client must be present and ready _____ minutes before the scheduled start. Hair must be clean and dry, with little or no product, unless a blow-dry service is booked. Party members are asked to wear button-down or loose-fitting tops. Client will disclose all allergies, sensitivities, and skin conditions in writing before the trial or the wedding. Artist may decline or adapt a service for safety or hygiene reasons and may use only professional, sanitized products and tools.

4. Timing and delays

If the party is late by more than _____ minutes or not ready, services may be shortened or dropped, and Client remains responsible for all booked services. If Artist waits or is idle for more than _____ minutes, an idle-time fee of $_____ per _____ minutes applies. Stay-late/touch-up time beyond the ready-by time is $_____ per hour. Artist is not responsible for how long a look lasts through weather, heat, or other conditions outside Artist's control.

5. Cancellation, rescheduling, and replacement

Client may cancel only by written notice. The retainer is nonrefundable. If Client cancels more than _____ days before the wedding, no further amount is owed. If Client cancels _____ days or fewer before, _____% of the total (or the full total) is owed and may be charged to the card on file. A reschedule more than _____ days before the wedding, to an available date within _____ months, may transfer the retainer; otherwise it is treated as a cancellation. Changes to the number of people or services must be made in writing by _____; reductions after that date are still charged. If Artist cannot perform because of illness or emergency, Artist will promptly send a comparable artist; if none is available, Artist will refund all payments, including retainer and travel. If disaster, severe weather, government action, epidemic, or venue closure makes the event impossible, the parties will work in good faith to reschedule or credit payments.

6. Liability and general terms

To the extent allowed by law, Artist's total liability is limited to the amount Client paid, and neither party is liable for indirect, incidental, or consequential damages. Client is responsible for Client's guests and for claims arising from Client's breach or failure to disclose allergies or sensitivities. Artist may photograph and post work for promotion; Client's identity will be kept confidential. This Agreement and Exhibit A are the entire agreement; changes require a signed writing. If a provision is unenforceable, the rest continues. The law of the State of _____ governs. The parties will first try good-faith discussion before formal proceedings.
